How Do Bees Make Honey? (Starting Point Science) Anna Claybourne

Designed for the six to eight age group, this book provides an introduction to the world of bees and other insects. Taking the life of the honeybee as a starting point, the book goes on to reveal facts about many other insects, such as termites that build towers taller than a house, and a beetle that sprays hot gas at its enemies. Quizzes and activities are scattered throughout the book to involve the reader.
