Missionary Discussions Gregory Hal Taggart

The unfiltered voice of experience speaks more clearly than any guidebook and with more authority than any rulebook. Thus when Gregory Taggart asked twelve returned missionaries to sit through individual interviews about their mission experiences, he hoped they would be full of advice born of those experiences, advice that would speak to the hearts and minds of prospective missionaries-those already certain they were going and those still wondering. He was not disappointed. What they said will be of benefit to any young man or woman thinking about serving a mission

Within the covers of Missionary Discussions, prospective missionaries will find answers on how to prepare for a mission, how to deal with difficult companions, what to do, and what to avoid. They'll read of how twelve young men and women much like themselves, found their testimonies and chose to serve, of how they struggled-and how they overcame. Their answers are in their own words. The lessons are universal
