Sedona Carlson is ready to give up on love after escaping a bad relationship. But when handsome stranger Alex Fairchild arrives in a moment of need while out rock climbing, Sedona begins to reconsider. And when their exciting connection and flirtatious banter explode into full-blown ecstasy in the bedroom, Sedona really begins to reconsider. Sedona and Alex share a chemistry unlike anything she's ever experienced before, and she finds herself swept up by their passion. Yet just as she's on the brink of falling head-over-heels for Alex, a chance encounter with her estranged father gives Sedona reason to pause and wonder whether Alex is a knight in shining armor or something much more sinister. Only after disaster strikes, threatening both their lives, does Sedona begin to get the information and ask the questions she needs to uncover Alex's true identity and motives. Unfolding at a taut, day-by-day pace, Take Me Home will simultaneously ignite your appetite for passion and satisfy your desire for suspense—keeping you guessing every step of the way.
