After the death of Sherlock Holmes when fighting evil Moriarty above the Reichenbach Falls, desperate people still came to seek his help at 221b Baker Street. Holmes' landlady, the wise and wonderful Mrs. Hudson, and her Cockney maid Fanny-Annie Grubbins, take over his detective work.

An impoverished couple have been told by Madame Zarkofski at a séance meeting, that something valuable is hidden in a cemetery wall. But there is nothing there and they believe someone at the meeting beat them to it. But the Detective Ladies are convinced Zarkofski is a fraud and seek to expose her. At another séance she predicts the death of Mr Knowles and the ladies try to protect him, but he dies and the medium is arrested for murder by autosuggestion. They then discover there was a lost Indian jewel in the wall, proving Zarkofski is genuine after all. Now they have to find the jewel and the thief to save her from the gallows. And time is running out.
