Hannah Sorrento never planned to be a band manager. She's a princess and the toughest obstacle she's had in life is finding shoes to match her outfit.

Then her father disappears, leaving her with only the money in her purse and a management contract for hot, indie band, STORM. She plans to sell the contract, one way or another, then pack up her designer wardrobe and head back to law school.

But lead singer, Jack Colt, has other ideas. She's never met a man like him before. His raw sexuality messes with her head and her heart... and a lot of other body parts too.

With the help of crazy rock chick, Angie, Hannah sets the band on their first steps to the big time and learns to survive on her own.

But this isn't some game - soon the threat that Hannah fears most becomes reality.

Jack Colt - he's arrogant and infuriating but he's the one that's there for Hannah when her world comes crashing down. With secrets of his own, will Jack Colt save Hannah or destroy her?

Bad Boy Rock Star is book 1 in this series.

Note: this version has been revised to fix editing issues. There have been no changes to the actual story.
