* This is not a stand-alone Book 1 of the series (When The Chips Are Down) must be read first.

Carrie Maynard has come a long way from the awkward teenager who sat in front of the most popular boy in calculus class. She's now a young, independent woman with a great job, a loving boyfriend, and a close knit family. But something still seems to missing.

Jason Wilder is no longer the cute teenager boy that Carrie crushed on from high school. He is now a hardworking, handsome man and one of Carrie's very best friends. He is the perfect guy just looking for his perfect girl. Uncertain that he's actually found her in his girlfriend, Ashley, he goes through the motions, hoping she will fill the void Carrie has left in his heart, ever since the day they met back in high school. When circumstances change and feelings can no longer be ignored, will Carrie continue to sit on the sidelines, watching someone else live out the future with the boy she loved from so long ago, or will she take the next step with the man that's always owned her heart?

Sometimes taking a risk for love isn't always easy.

Sometimes even the strongest of friendships are put to the test.

And...

Sometimes it's easier to walk away when life takes us down a different path than the one our heart intended.
