Windchill (Detective Scott Cullen Mysteries Book 6) Ed James

'A must for crime-fiction fans' Amazon five-star review

'Classic Scottish noir: bad food, bad moods, too much booze and tight plots' @ey0k1, Twitter

Perfect for fans of Ian Rankin, Ed McBain and Christopher Brookmyre, Windchill, the sixth book in the Scott Cullen series, brings together two different cases for Cullen to solve, in the dark and gripping Scottish police procedural series that has set the bestseller charts alight.

Detective Constable Scott Cullen finds his peaceful return from holiday scuppered when the body of a barman is found with a knife in his gut. What seems to be a straightforward case of violent jealousy soon reveals itself to have much darker links; revelations of mounting debts, out of control gambling and organised crime lead to the discovery of another body. Desperate for a promotion, Cullen sets out to solve the murders, but can he untangle the web?

This ebook also includes a short story, Christmas Steps, which sees Cullen investigate the gruesome murder of a businessman on a cold Christmas Eve in Edinburgh.

'Ed James has gone from strength to strength... If you liked the previous books in the Scott Cullen series, you'll love Windchill!' Brian Smith, Amazon five-star review

'Windchill was very difficult to put down. There were so many twists that kept me on the edge of my seat...

If you're a Rebus fan then you will definitely love Scott Cullen' Nicola Boyle, Amazon five-star review

'What an incredible book. I loved it from start to finish. The best one so far' Amazon five-star review

'Excellent new instalment of a readable, fast-paced series' Amazon five-star review

'A gritty, gripping story' celtictraveller "locust559", Amazon five-star review
