Let this book be your check lists everyday on how you spent and what to do when buying things to save money. Here are the example tips you can find inside this ebook.

"One of the worst things you can do for your wallet is to walk into a store hungry without a list. You end up buying a whole bunch of things that you didn't need and coming home without necessities.

Writing a list before you go will mean you're sure of what you're buying, and you only buy those items you can even write down the costs of items so you have a projected total cost."

"Sometimes you go all out and buy an expensive battery powered toy for your kid and the packaging it came in becomes their new favorite toy. Encourage your children to be creative, make their own toys and use paints/draw. You can also make low cost rag dolls, doll houses and toy cars are really cheap if you have boys."
