Frowned Upon Stephen John Hammond

Sit down and hang on, you're about to go along with Otis Youngblood and his crew.....well, let's just say "for the ride." Be there as the young counter culture guys and gals of Fuego, Texas party way too much on the holidays. You'll laugh out loud as the fun loving group puts together the first annual Baby Jesus Baseball, as they try to stay one step ahead of the town's deputy, Whacker Texas stRanger. You'll be there for the new year's eve celebration at the old west saloon recreation where a shooting incident lands one of them in the hospital and a rare chance meeting with the world famous country-western singer, songwriter, stoner, Billy Wilson. Follow them as they become VIP guest at the at the next, Billy Wilson Annual Fourth of July Picnic. The laughter won't stop as the gang gets busted for skinny dipping on ole man Burleson's ranch and how the whole town will never forget or forgive, Halloween night as they are found passed out in their Cadillac in the town's church parking lot the next Sunday morning. You won't believe the scheme they come up with to obtain millions of dollars and a way to buy freedom of their construction jobs and a life of leisure far away from Texas. But they have to get past 3-shot Sheriff Wheeler who's on to their money making scheme. Readers that can remember back into the 60's and 70's will know this story reeks of the 4-C's, counter-culture-cult-classic like that of Easy Rider and One Flew Over the Coo-Coo's Nest. Make that escape now and take a ride with Otis, Madame Lizzy and her lonely hearts tumbleweed, Roy-boy, Melody Singer, along with Bildo, Dan-ger, Tinker Bell and the Cadaver Dawgs.....you won't be sorry.
